

Trade Union Learner of the Year 2020

This year the ICTU ULF project wants to celebrate the success and achievement of a trade union learner who, through union-led learning has excelled, transforming their own working life and inspiring others.

Any learner can be nominated who has completed their qualification between January 2019 and January 2020.

Learners must be nominated by a ULF Project Manager.

The award will be presented at the Union Learning Conference in Mossley Mill, Newtownabbey on Tuesday 10th March.

Closing date for nominations is the 27th February 2020.

Please return completed form email to:

julie.gorman@ictuni.org

Name of the nominee

Union:

Employer:

Daytime telephone number:.....

Email address:

1. What qualification/s and level has the learner completed?
2. Why did the learner decide to return to education?
3. How has learning improved his/her life?
4. Has his/her experience inspired others?
5. What are the learners' plans for the future?

I confirm that (Insert name) is nominated by this union for The Trade Union Learner of the Year Award.

Signed.....

Name.....

Position in the union.....

Union.....

Date.....